'Twas a wonderful night for dancing,
And whencame for me,
The stars were shining in my eyes,
For everyone to see.
We left the house at.....o'clock,
In need of nothing more,
Than a moonbeam to escort us,
Right to the very door.
The band played.....
our favorite tune,
We hummed along for fun,
But all too soon they played the song,
That meant the dance was done.
We went to.....
for a little while.
Each moment seemed just right,
Then home at.....to linger,
In dreams of a.....night.

A PROM PENCHANT

This is the one night of our whole school career.
When we are able to stand up and cheer
We now feel handsome and beautiful
Because we are dancing instead of being dutiful
The days and the years will swiftly go by
And this prom at Rainbow may leave a tear in our eye
But this night of drifting and dreaming on the ballroom floor
Will leave us with the wish that we could have had just one more.
